

NEAL C. LAURON | DISPATCH

COSI show to unwrap mysteries | A mummy nicknamed "Annie" will be part of the COSI show "Lost Egypt: Ancient Secrets, Modern Science," opening May

30. Yesterday, Mimi Leveque of the Peabody Essex Museum in Salem, Mass., worked on stabilizing "Annie," who was discovered in Akhmim, Egypt. Scientists estimate the female Egyptian was 16-18 years old and dates from 206 B.C.

